

Cathryn R. Gregg, CCM

Partner and Director
Treasury Strategies Inc.

Cathy Gregg is a Partner and Director of Treasury Strategies, Inc. She sets strategy and direction for the firm, leads the financial institution and corporate practices, and manages relationships and engagements with our major banking and corporate clients. Ms. Gregg has pioneered approaches for payments business advancement in both the corporate treasury and banking sectors. She has focused on payment systems and banking industry evolution since founding the firm in 1982.

Ms. Gregg has been a keynote speaker at the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago Payments Conference, NACHA, Tawpii, the AFP National Conference, and numerous regional Treasury and Bank Conferences. Prior to founding Treasury Strategies, Inc. she had several years of experience at The First National Bank of Chicago, including their First Scholar program.

Ms. Gregg received her MBA from the University of Chicago following a BA in Economics and Psychology from Kenyon College, where she has served on the Board of Trustees. She is a permanently certified CCM, and serves on the advisory boards of some of Treasury Strategies' bank clients. She has been the director of Marriage and Family Ministries, and currently teaches women's studies at South Park Church. Cathy is also an avid gardener and cook.